

Frogs

The Common Froglet finds a garden pond to spend a sunny afternoon while Pobblebonk burrows into the ground and waits for rain.

In the billabong, the Striped and Spotted Marsh Frogs lay their eggs on the water surface, and the Southern Brown Tree frog leaps hangs upside down on a branch to catch a tasty fly.

About the Artist

Local Aboriginal artist, Ian Harrison of Dandenong hand drew these pages