

Birds

The Willie Wagtail weaves a nest of soft grasses and covers it in spider's web, while the Welcome Swallow builds hers with mud.

Perched on a low branch, The Eastern Yellow Robin is watching for insects to munch.

Up above, the Musk Lorikeets feed on flowering gums and the big Yellow-tailed Black Cockatoo soars over the tallest woodland trees.

About the Artist

Local Aboriginal artist, Ian Harrison of Dandenong hand drew these pages